Kristin's Kitty Care case study:

Small Business Growth

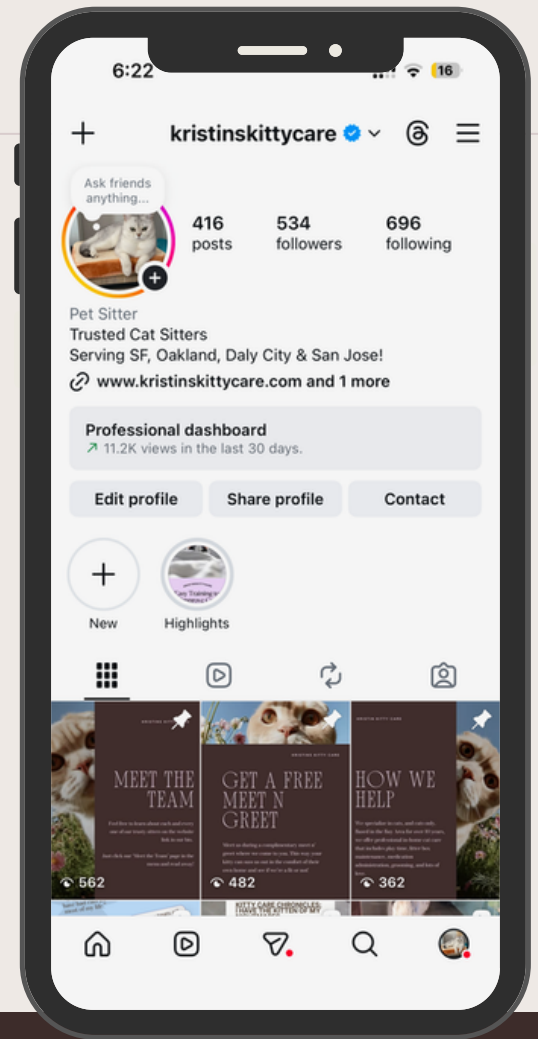

Pet care brand KKC is a current client actively building an engaged community instead of just content systems that drive traffic. Overall their new marketing strategy has increased visibility and organic traffic, but they are more importantly paving the way for better care for cats across California.

Industry

Pet Services (Cat Sitting & Grooming)

About Client

KKC is a small business with 10+ years of providing care for cats across the Bay Area with a team of 20+ sitters.

THE CHALLENGES

High fluctuation in bookings through out the year.

Reliant on word of mouth marketing for GTM.

Owner overwhelmed by managing everything themselves.

THE SOLUTION

Introduced a marketing strategy that increased grooming bookings during low season by 150%.

Established a system connecting viral blog posts, newsletters and Reels to capture high intent traffic across channels.

Provided ongoing support with clear monthly reports and action steps to help relieve owner burnout.

CLIENT TESTIMONIAL

"I was considering shutting the business down. Partnering with Christene was a relief. We are slowly seeing more bookings, but she also helps take off some of the burden."

— Kristin Mar, Owner of Kristin's Kitty Care
